1004-60 [a] Where encroachment is neither slight nor unintentional, injunction will require removal of bridges, notwithstanding expense. Ill 172NE 829.
1004-60½-New. In judgment in action to quiet title to easement of way and restrain interference with use, description of way held sufficient in regard to location. 70CalA283, 233P370.
1004-60⅓-New. The description of an easement for an electric transmission line is not indefinite for failure to designate the character of materials to be used. 70CalA283, 233P370.
1004-60¼-New. The territorial description of an easement for an electric transmission line is sufficient where it describes the right of way by courses and distances and as being a stated number of feet in width equally on each side of the line of poles. 70CalA283, 233P370.
1004-60⅕-New. It would be impossible in a judgment to describe and limit the exact kind and character of materials that might be used by owner of easement in matter of repairs or reconstruction. 70CalA283, 233P370.
1004-60⅙-New. The action of the court in determining the intent and purpose manifested in a deed in fixing and defining location of passageway was correct. 102Conn663, 129A849.
1005-61 [a] Decree ordering removal of obstruction of way "forthwith" is not objectionable as it means as soon as practicable. 253Mass378, 149NE155.
1005-61½-New. An injunction, permitting respondents to roof over a passageway at not less than stated heights, is not objectionable as giving them affirmative relief. Mass 167NE233.
1005-62½-New. Plaintiff is not limited to damages for trespass, but defendant could be compelled to remove obstruction to way. RI 139A311.
1005-74½-New. Decree requiring the removal of hatchway from passageway and filling in excavations so as to render the passageway as firm as on a fixed date has been construed to require the removal of the hatchway and did not permit it to remain, although covered. 252Mass78, 148NE567.
1005-74⅓-New. Decree requiring defendants to fill, cover, and strengthen a certain passageway to render it as safe as on a fixed date has been held not to permit maintenance of stairway and elevator well. 252Mass78, 148NE567.
1005-74¼-New. Where removal of encroachment underneath a way would entail great loss and projections above surface were not substantial, the court will not order removal, since to do so would be inequitable. 187Wis232, 202NW34.
1005-74⅕-New. Defendant by adopting construction of its predecessors in plaintiff's land has no ground for objecting to that part of the decree requiring it to fill the excavation to the level of a surrounding passageway and restore plaintiff's land to former condition. 252 Mass165, 147NE556.
1005-74⅙-New. Violation of injunction subjects servient owner to payment of damages. 106Conn464, 138A364.
1005-74⅐-New. Decree fixing bounds for area over which private way remains in force is proper. 260Mass407, 157NE 362.
1005-74⅛-New. A judgment denying relief by injunction may save to the landowner his right of action for damages. 103WVa81, 137SE349.
1005-74⅑-New. A judgment requiring the removal of obstructions from a private way includes any gates across the way. 165Ga765, 142SE139.
1005-75 See also 92CalA504, 268P675.
1005-75½-New. In a suit by an upper riparian owner to enjoin the lower owner from interfering with plaintiff's running a recreational resort, or his patrons in the free use of the lake, judgment, in so far as it restrained defendants' interference with the use of the lake by the general public, was incorrect. 321Mo186, 9SW(2d)978.
